5.6 V.P. Events: Plan and seek out event opportunities.

5.7 The vice president's positions will be open to the general public (internal and external). The hiring process will consist of an application process within the Facebook group. The positions will be finalized by the president.

Article VI Elections

6.1. The CCC executive team is active from September to August

6.2 An application process will be held to determine the executives of the following academic school year. The application process will consist of a submission of application form and agreement between returning executives.

6.3 The newly chosen President will lead the recruitment of all other Vice Presidents.

6.4 For current executive members who wish to remain in their current positions: firstly, interest must be expressed and finally, suitability is determined by the newly-chosen president. These two requirements must be fulfilled in order to occupy the same position once again.

6.5 For current executive members who wish to apply for other positions: brand new applications must be submitted.

6.6. The current President will choose their successor according to the following factors:

- Application Process
  - Suitable interest and involvement in prior CCC events
  - The presidential candidate must have served on the executive team for at least 8 months or throughout the entire current academic term.

- Endorsement by the current executive team: this serves as a supporting factor in the current president's decision-making process. If in any case the president's chosen candidate does not align with the majority endorsement, an emergency meeting will be held to collectively deliberate candidacy. This meeting will discuss the president's chosen candidate's inability to secure endorsements from the team. If the president and the VP Internal find the claims of non-endorsement to be substantial, an alternative candidate will be chosen.

6.7 The previous executive is responsible to ensure a smooth transition by writing and submitting a transition report to the President before the beginning of the election process.

6.8 A tie between applicants shall be chosen by compromise between the president and the current CCC Executive Committee.
